

Lavish Occasions Presents
Our 4th Annual Winter Wedding Planning Seminar

Thursday, March 13th at 7:30pm

Wedding Planning 101

Here at Lavish Occasions we feel that every Bride deserves the chance to meet with a Wedding Planner, as a rite of passage, even if the couple does not have the budget with which to work. For this reason we offer more budget friendly services such as Partial Planning, Day of Coordination and Consulting. There is so much involved and that is why we offer free consultations and have been celebrating the "Engagement Season" with our annual Winter Wedding Planning Seminars.

What to Expect

Our Seminar will be held on Thursday, March 13th at 7:30pm. Refreshments will be served and the presentation will begin shortly after. Each couple will receive a gift bag and pamphlet with helpful hints and documents. The seminar will teach you about budgeting/saving money, event design, theme development, managing your tasks so that the process does not seem overwhelming, and finally how to create a signature wedding that will represent you as a couple and your personal style.

Project Management

Referring to the itemized to-do list and timeline, this will enable you to create and plan your Wedding in an efficient and organized way. Proper planning can make this very important process fun and exciting as it was meant to be, rather than chaotic and stressful. As with anything else, it is easier to get things done when you are not rushed and overwhelmed!

Savers & Booking Vendors

Our average Lavish Bride spends in excess of $65,000 dollars on her big day. Within the budget, there are easily over 8 vendors to hire who will guide you through the engagement and assist in creating the Wedding of your dreams. At our Wedding Planning seminar, you will learn how to book the best vendors in their fields and also learn how to communicate and save money in the long run.

Day of Coordination

Professional Planning at Lavish Occasions includes three popular packages: Wedding Planning (and partial), Consulting and Day-of Coordination. 'Day of' services were created for the Bride who planned it all but would like to have a professional as an advocate through the process to organize the actual wedding day and handle the many situations that can present themselves. Why not be a guest at your own Wedding? You have made a huge financial investment in your special day; why not insure it for this economy-friendly service?

Important Information

The seminar is designed for a small group setting and will have limited seats available. Reservations must be made. To reserve your spot, contact us at 718-698-9049 or Marissa@lavishoccasions.com
